

Welcome, Visitors!

Information about our church and ministries is available on the Welcome Table near the main doors. Standing nearby are church members who will be happy to answer your questions. Interested in joining the church? Our next Membership Exploration will be April 11, 2018.

For the convenience of those who need to leave the Sanctuary during worship, the service is video broadcast in the Chapel, Upper Lounge and Nursery.

Large-print bulletins are available. Please ask the ushers for a copy.

Children in Worship

Child care for infants and toddlers is available in the Children, Youth and Family Center. The Family Worship Area is open during service for children ages 3-10.

Sensory Boxes

First Congregational offers Sensory Boxes for any of our friends on the autism spectrum – adult or child. These boxes are filled with “fidgets” galore, headphones and much more. Please let us know if you or a loved one needs one of these tools.

Donating to First Congregational UCC

If you are enrolled in automatic contributions, you may still participate in the weekly offering by submitting a Giving Card, found in the pews. We encourage members and friends of First Congregational to assist us in planning our budget by pledging each year. Pledge cards are available in the pews and may be placed in the offering plates at any time.

Pastor's Message

Raising a Child of God

There was a trick I taught our oldest child – line up the center line of the waist band of your pants with your belly button. She was totally disinterested in symmetry and wearing pants askew seemed perfectly fine to her. Similarly, her bedroom always looked like the aftermath of an explosion – of toys, of clothes, of stuffed animals, pillows and bed clothes. She seemed to have no instinct for order or neatness, no appreciation of an aesthetic other than chaos.

Imagine my shock when I caught our second child at two years old sitting on the carpet in her bedroom, arranging her socks and shoes in neatly matched pairs. It's as if she were a different species from our oldest – an alien from a far-off planet where children have an appreciation of symmetry, of order, of fashion even.

This pattern continued as they grew older. During the morning ritual of laying out the day's outfit, for instance, the oldest child was totally disinterested. Pants, fine. I don't care. Shirt, got it. Whatever. And socks – they're the ones that go on your feet, right? But the next one – well, the morning dressing ritual was a lengthy and complex negotiation, sometimes even a battle of wills. This shirt – no. Wrong color. Those pants. Never! Too baggy. Leggings, maybe, if it goes with this dress and those socks and this hair band and those sandals and on and on and on...

Just when you think you have this parenting thing down, then you have a second child and have to learn a whole new set of parenting skills and styles. And that's to say nothing of the fact that children CHANGE and grow up and are more than happy to lecture you on what they do or do not need you to do and be as a parent.

I wonder if our parenting experience could be instructive to us as we think of our faith life. What guidelines/rituals/spiritual practices have you followed in your faith life? And when they haven't worked, have you thought to change or add to those practices? Perhaps the child most difficult to raise is the child of God that is YOU. Don't hesitate to be the kind of parent you need to be.

Your friend and fellow minister,

Rev. Steve Savides

Opportunity for Member Input

The Building Study Task Force of First Congregational UCC-Appleton was established as part of a recommendation from the Horizon team's efforts. The team has been hard at work since November 1, 2017. We are happy to announce that we will be conducting presentations to the congregation during services on March 18 to share our journey so far and the work we've done. You will have an opportunity during worship to fill out a member survey. On the same day, we will also be holding listening sessions in the Chapel after each service. Come find out what we've been up to and take the opportunity to get involved by filling out a survey or chatting with a member of the Task Force during the listening sessions. For members who are not able to attend service on March 18, the survey will be available online via the church's website and Facebook page. We will be conducting a second session during worship services on April 15 where we will present information regarding the survey results. Watch the Open Door for more details.

Fun, Fellowship, and Food

Are you looking for ways to connect with other First Congo members? We are too! What better way to get to know each other than at the dinner table. We're organizing a "dining fellowship," where members would meet in each other's homes three to four times a year, in groups of seven or eight (adults only this time). Everyone would contribute some portion of a pre-planned menu; cost would be shared equally among participants. Sign up in the gathering area if you want to know more or contact Dan and Cheryl Nisler at 540-6046 or Doug and Pat Nelson at 731-4693 or the church office at 733-7393. An organizational meeting will be held the evening of Friday, April 6 at the home of Doug and Pat Nelson (125 E. McArthur St., 54911). Bring an appetizer and a beverage, and we'll see you there! There is a sign-up sheet in the Narthex.

First Congo's Documentary Project

Jonathan Steffen, our Technology Coordinator, is creating a documentary about First Congo's building for its 50th anniversary! If anyone has any fun stories, cool photos or videos, or any information to share on the history of the building, feel free to reach out to Jonathan at <http://www.firstcongoappleton.org/contact/Jonathan%20Steffen> Thanks!

Tuesday Yoga (All Levels)

This class has been led by Bev Payne for the last 3.5 years. It offers traditional Hatha Yoga that is slower and more meditative, focusing on building and strengthening muscle, increasing joint mobility and increasing bone. You will experience a level of mindfulness which allows for a deeper connection and appreciation for your body, improves mood and improves sleep. Yoga is for everyone and all levels are accepted. The cost is $42.00 for a 6-week session or a $10.00 drop in rate. A yoga mat, strap, and block are required. FIRST CLASS IS FREE. This happens every Tuesday from 4:15-5:15 PM at First Congo in Fellowship Hall.

2018 High School Lock-in

March 16-17

You are invited to the 2018 High School Lock-In! This event is open to all 9th-12th graders. We will be meeting March 16 at 7:00 PM at Sky Zone in Appleton. At 9:00 PM we will head to the church where we will have food, fun, games, movies, and great fellowship! Fill out a permission slip and turn it in to Joel or the CYF office. The lock in will end at 9:00 AM March 17.

Easter Help Wanted!

Easter is coming! Please help fill Easter eggs!

We will hide approximately 2,000 eggs for First Congregational's massive egg hunt, which takes place between Easter Sunday services. Eggs should be filled with new, individually wrapped candy (Lifesavers, bubblegum, Starburst, Jolly Ranchers, Milky Ways, etc.).

Plastic eggs are located in the Narthex and should be returned to the church no later than Palm Sunday, March 25.

Wilderness/Outdoor Survey Follow Up

Thanks to all ninety-seven people who filled out the wilderness and outdoor survey. At first glance, I wanted to share some of the (highly varied) feedback. First, this ministry will strive to be inclusive of all ages, experience levels, and physical abilities. Second, for those who are interested in wilderness travel, the Boundary Waters clearly tops the list. Third, there is strong interest in retreat-center or lodge based outdoor experiences that included fellowship and structured meditation, prayer, and outside activities. Fourth, there is energy around the destination to travel that is mostly backpacking related. Lastly, it was clear that many people need at least a year notice to be able to make arrangements.

I am in the process of forming a “steering committee” to help interpret this feedback and guide the ministry in the coming years. In the fall of 2018 we will make available a multi-year calendar with clear sign-up procedures and trip information. In the meantime, thanks for your help in formulating this ministry which has the three-fold purpose of promoting outdoor education, providing spiritual enrichment, and having fun through deepening our fellowship with one another.

-Pastor Nick

bunk beds, making outhouses, building accessible entries to homes, and roofing homes. Volunteers get on-the-job instruction (most volunteers have little or no experience as handy persons) and considerable time getting to know Pine Ridge residents and the Lakota culture.

We have reserved spaces for a mission trip scheduled for August 11 to August 18. Re-Member asks that we confirm attendees before April, so please let us know if you are thinking of going on this intergenerational mission (children 12 or older may attend with a parent or guardian).
