

Welcome, Visitors!

Information about our church and ministries is available on the Welcome Table near the main doors. Standing nearby are church members who will be happy to answer your questions. Interested in joining the church? Our next Membership Exploration will be fall of 2018.

For the convenience of those who need to leave the Sanctuary during worship, the service is video broadcast in the Chapel, Upper Lounge and Nursery.

Large-print bulletins are available. Please ask the ushers for a copy.

Children in Worship

Child care for infants and toddlers is available in the Children, Youth and Family Center. The Family Worship Area is open during service for children ages 3-10.

Sensory Boxes

First Congregational offers Sensory Boxes for any of our friends on the autism spectrum – adult or child. These boxes are filled with “fidgets” galore, headphones and much more. Please let us know if you or a loved one needs one of these tools.

Donating to First Congregational UCC

If you are enrolled in automatic contributions, you may still participate in the weekly offering by submitting a Giving Card, found in the pews. We encourage members and friends of First Congregational to assist us in planning our budget by pledging each year. Pledge cards are available in the pews and may be placed in the offering plates at any time.

Flowers

The flowers on the communion table this morning were donated by Tom and Andrea Tatlock, in memory of Jennifer Ann Tatlock.

The flower arrangement in the Sanctuary this morning was designed by Cindi Ritcey Fox.

Communion

We celebrate communion the first Sunday of each month. Our communion elements are gluten-free; however, they are made in a facility that also processes wheat products.

Baptism

Our next scheduled Baptism Sundays are September 16, October 21, November 18, and December 16.

If you would like to be baptized or have a child baptized, please request a baptism registration form from the church office or download and print one from www.firstcongoappleton.org/worship/baptism. Please return baptism registration forms to the church office a month ahead of your desired baptism date.

Pastor's Message

The Great Reunion

Summer is a time of joyous reunions, a gathering of friends and families from various places and periods in our lives. These reunions bring together pieces of our lives, fragments of time, and reintegrate them into our present self. We spend so much time in the pressing demands of the NOW - work and home, roles and responsibilities, urgent situations demanding that we set aside ourselves, of who we ARE in favor of the thing we must DO. Summer time, reunion time, gives our lives a chance to slow down, gives ourselves a chance to catch up.

Perhaps the most important reunion summer encourages us to enjoy is our reunion with creation. At the lake, in the woods, on the leafy trail or the dusty road, summer time, slower time, gives us a chance to connect again with nature. J. Phillip Newell reminds us these connect us with our earliest experiences:

"Like most children, I had grown up with a sense of awe at creation. Our earliest memories are generally of wonder in relation to the elements. Do we not all carry with us, for instance, something of the memory of first listening to the waters of a river or to rainfall, or lying in the grass, feeling and smelling it and seething its brilliant green, or watching sunlight dappling through leaves."

In his book, "Listening for the Heartbeat of God; A Celtic Spirituality," Newell sees these earliest experiences as essential in our relationship with God: "Connecting to these moments will be recollections of experiencing at the deepest of levels a type of communion with God in nature..."

There is a lovely prayer a story attributes to a woman from the Scottish Island of Harris who found healing in nature. Perhaps it can be our prayer through these last, precious days of summer:

*There is no plant in the ground
But is full of God's virtue,
There is no form in the strand,
But is full of God's blessing
Jesu! Jesu! Jesu!
Jesu who ought to be praised.*

2018 InterFaith Build

The 2018 Interfaith Build is just around the corner and we are looking for volunteers to help with this year's build. Thank you to those who have already signed up. We need two more people for siding on Tuesday, September 4 and four people for wall rock on Wednesday, September 12. Volunteer names are needed two weeks ahead of scheduled work day. The build will take place at 320 S. Story Street, Appleton. If you are willing to help, please sign up in the Narthex or contact Tim DeHart at tdehart@new.rr.com.

Appalachia Service Trip

September 22-29, 2018

“Warmer, Safer, Drier.” That is the mission of the Appalachia Service Project. Their goal is to help families in need to improve the condition of their homes. We are planning our 5th service trip to Appalachia. This year, we will be at the Guyan Valley Center in Brenton, West Virginia helping to rebuild or rehab homes. You need no specific carpentry skills to participate, just a willingness to serve. We do our part and turn the project over to the next arriving crew. Amazing work gets done! If we bring a willingness to work hard and a desire to connect with the families with whom we work and with each other, lives are transformed. Each trip has been an amazing experience for all of us participating.

The cost of the trip is $325 plus travel expenses. The $325 covers lodging and meals at the center and also helps fund the service projects.

Please sign up in the Narthex, call Valerie Schultz at (920) 915-8008 or email her at www.firstcongoappleton.org/contact/valerie%20schultz. You can also go to the Appalachia Service Project website for more information. Thanks!

Church School Teachers Needed

August is here and that means the start of the 2018-2019 Church School year is just around the corner. It is truly an exciting time. The lesson plans have been written, curriculum materials have been ordered, the classrooms are being set up, and registration information is being finalized. All we need is YOU! Please consider volunteering your time and talents to teach a rotation of Church School. The Church School year runs from September through May with the first rotation beginning on September 16 and concluding on October 14. Other rotations will also run for a period of five weeks. You do not need to have children enrolled in Church School to teach, just a love of children and the desire to share stories of the Bible with them. Lesson plans and materials will be provided to you, lessons will be set up for you in the classrooms each week, and you will be greeted by the smiles of the First Congo children! Please consider joining this ministry and volunteering. Contact Colleen Berry,

Director for Children's Ministry at cberry@firstcongoappleton.org.

Dignity & Respect at First Congo

On Sunday, July 29, Karen Nelson, the Diversity and Inclusion Coordinator for the City of Appleton, joined us in worship to tell the congregation about the Dignity and Respect Campaign here in Appleton. Dignity and Respect is a nationwide-campaign that makes this challenge: "Every day we have the opportunity to test our commitment to dignity and respect through our behavior. The Campaign helps individuals and organizations reinforce their commitment to creating environments for ALL to work, live, learn, and play – with ALL of our differences." After her presentation on Sunday, Karen invited the congregation to take the Dignity & Respect pledge. Everyone did by standing and repeating, "I will do my part to make our world a better place by treating everyone with dignity and respect." If you weren't there on Sunday and would like to take the pledge, visit <https://dignityandrespect.org/APPLETON/>. If you have any questions, contact Karen Nelson as karen.nelson@appleton.org or (920) 832-1564.

League of Women Voters of Appleton: Women's Equality Day

Thursday, August 23 • 4:30-6:30 PM

Unitarian Universalist Fellowship
2600 Philip Lane, Appleton

ERA: Past, Present, and Future

This year, the Women's Equality Day program will feature a discussion in which four panelists will take an in-depth look at issues around the Equal Rights Amendment, including a look at the status of the ERA in 2018, what would be different for women if we had an ERA, and where we go from here.

Mary Ann Rossi holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Classics from Connecticut College, a Master of Arts degree in Classics from Brown University, and a Ph.D. in Classics from Birkbeck University of London. Mary Ann was a local leader and activist in the second wave of the women's rights movement.

Druscilla Scribner is an Associate Professor of Political Science at the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh. She is a teacher and researcher, examining women's equal rights around the world.

Lisa King Gehrke is a graduate of UW Madison in chemical engineering, worked in the corporate world for eight-years, and now is the co-chair of Legislative Committee for Mid-Day Alliance, working on advocacy for women's rights.

Rachel Raasch is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh with a Bachelor of Arts in history. Raasch is a native of Appleton and represents the sixth district on the Appleton Common Council.

This event is $15 per person and you can pay online at www.lwvappleton.org or send money to LWV Appleton, P.O. Box 1281 Appleton, WI 54912. Please make checks payable to LWV Appleton. RSVP by Monday, August 20.

NAMI Family-to-Family

Tuesdays, June 12-August 28 • 6:00-8:30 PM

NAMI Family-to-Family is a 12-session educational program for family, significant others and friends of people living with mental illness. The class, which is offered at no cost to participants, is a designated evidence-based program. Family-to-Family is taught by NAMI-trained family members who have been there, includes presentations, discussions and interactive exercises.

For more information or to register, contact Lisa at (920) 954-1550, email Lisa at lisa@namifoxvalley.org or visit www.namifoxcvalley.org/education for more information. Thanks!

Three Family-to-Family Classes

This FREE 12-week course is for family members and friends (18 and older) of adults who live with mental illness. The class is taught by trained family members who have lived the experience. Many family members describe this program as "life changing." Topics include:

- Family responses to the trauma of mental illness.

- Information on the major mental illnesses--depression, bipolar disorder, anxiety disorders, and thought disorders.
- The biology of the brain and emerging scientific discoveries.
- Medication review, treatment strategies, and prospects for recovery.
- Improving communication, problem solving, and coping skills.
- How to manage problems, crisis, and relapse.
- Exploring community resources and services.

Appleton Class:

Meets Mondays, 6:00-8:30 PM at NAMI Fox Valley, September 10-November 19, 2018.

Waupaca Class:

Meets Tuesdays, 6:00-8:30 PM at FVTC, Waupaca Regional Center, Room WAP111, September 11-November 20, 2018.

Chilton Class:

Meets Wednesdays, 6:00-8:30 PM at FVTC, Chilton Regional Center, Room 126, September 12-November 28.

Classes fill up quickly so reserve your spot today! (Preregistration is required). Register above, call 920-954-1550 or email lisa@namifoxvalley.org.

Visit our website at namifoxvalley.org for more information about our support groups and education and outreach programs.

Our Joy Continues!

Save the date for the 44th Annual Joy Conference! The Joy Conference will be held on Saturday, February 2, 2019 from 8:00 AM-2:15 PM. The event will be held at Fox Valley Lutheran High School in Appleton. This year we welcome speakers, Gaye Lindfors, Annie Meehan, and Lanelle Vasichek. Please share with your family and friends and save the date! Registration will be open on December 14. For more information please call Outagamie County UW-Extension at (920) 832-4763.

AAUW Used Book Sale

AAUW will be holding its 82nd annual used book sale October 18-21 and 25-28, inside the Northland Mall. We're accepting contributions of books from the community. This includes hardcover and paperback books, children's books, books on CD, sheet music, CDs, DVDs, puzzles, and games. Profits are used to provide scholarships for women. For book pick-up or drop-off, please call: (920)427-6655; (920)734-6750; (920)843-8888; or (920)739-6469.

Administration

Administrative Assistant for Communications

Christina Trepanier, our church's Administrative Assistant for Communications, resigned from her position recently so that she could pursue her master's degree. In her letter of resignation, she writes, "Despite having to leave, I deeply appreciate the opportunities for growth and development you have provided during my time here at First Congregational UCC. Thank you for your guidance and support. I hope we will have opportunities to collaborate in the future." We offer Christina our thanks and our best wishes for the future.

We have been blessed to have our new Administrative Assistant for Communications, Mardy Wiesman, train with Christina during her last week with us. If you have anything you'd like to have placed in the Open Door, Mardy asks that you please contact him at mwiesman@firstcongoappleton.org by noon on Tuesday of the week you need the article to be published.
