

A GIFT HAS BEEN GIVEN IN YOUR HONOR

A Donation to UCC Disaster Ministries

Every year, disasters like wildfires, hurricanes, tornados, and more leave families in need of spiritual, physical, financial, and psychological support. UCC Disaster Ministries responds to these crises across the United States and around the world with its domestic and global partners.

In the U.S., UCC Disaster Ministries works hand-in-hand with local churches, conferences, and Conference Disaster Coordinators to offer disaster preparedness and trauma training, respond in a disaster's immediate aftermath, and support community-based, long-term recovery groups with volunteer work teams, funds, and expertise. Around the globe, UCC Disaster Ministries also maintains strategic partnerships and direct relationships with organizations and faith communities engaged in disaster response in more than 125 countries.

The donation given in your honor will help someone recovering from a wildfire, hurricane, or other disaster get back on their feet.
